GOVERNMENT'S SUPPLEMENTAL EXHIBITS
IN SUPPORT OF GOVERNMENT'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT AARON
EASON'S APPLICATION FOR BAIL
REVIEW

Hearing Date: 1/4/2019
Hearing Time: 9:00 a.m.
Location: Courtroom of the Hon.
Cormac J. Carney

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, the United States Attorney for the Central District of California and Assistant United States Attorneys David T. Ryan and George E. Pence, hereby files supplemental exhibits in support of the government's opposition to defendant AARON EASON's application for bail review.

On December 27, 2018, Facebook provided additional raw data to the government. An initial but ongoing review of that data has

1 identified additional statements made by defendant Eason
2 demonstrating his intent to engage in violence and to recruit others
3 to do the same.

4 Exhibit 27: On March 26, 2017, the day after the rally in 5 Huntington Beach, California, defendant Eason posted photographs on 6 Facebook showing co-defendant Robert Rundo and others pursuing and 7 assaulting a counter-protestor. An associate commented, "Good shit!
8 It's great fun smashing AntiFa scum!" Defendant Eason replied, 9 "Sometimes I feel sorry for them. Then I remember how murderous they 10 become when they have the upper hand."

11 Exhibit 28: On March 26, 2017, defendant Eason posted on 12 Facebook, "We chased the antifa commies off the beach in Huntington 13 today. They managed to give me an eyeful of pepper spray. The stuff 14 works. You can see me blind and trying to get it out in the 15 background." An associate responded, "we are sure to run into them 16 in Berkeley next month." Defendant Eason responded, "I will see you 17 at Berkeley then. Maybe we'll chase th[e]m down the street there 18 too."

19 Exhibit 29: On March 26, 2017, defendant Eason's associate 20 posted on Facebook, "We need as many as we can in Berkley (sic).
21 That is where the war will be. We will be in a city where the entire 22 city is antifa damn near and hate us what happens last month in 23 Berkeley is nothing to what we expect this time." Defendant Eason 24 replied, "Nah, I'm sure they will want to [have] well reasoned
25 debates this time. And they will most certainly have learned by now 26 that they should respect other people's right to free expression."
27
28

1 The associate replied, "Lol<sup>1</sup> well we are going in plate carriers face 2 shields bump hats and we have someone making sh[ie]lds as well!"
3 Defendant Eason replied, "Wow. Is that an SOO<sup>2</sup> deal? Im not even 4 bringing a pocket knife. I can handle whatever the left wants to 5 dish a lot better than weapons charges from Berkeley pd." Defendant
6 Eason repeatedly argues in his motion and his reply in support 7 thereof that the fact that he was not carrying weapons during the 8 riot in Berkeley proves that he lacked the intent to engage in 9 violence there. (CR 104 at p. 12; CR 110 at p. 8) The foregoing 10 Facebook post, however, undercuts that argument. It shows that 11 defendant Eason did not bring a weapon to Berkeley because he 12 expected to perpetrate violence and feared a serious weapons charge.

13 Exhibit 30: On April 13, 2017, two days before the Berkeley 14 event on April 15, 2017, defendant Eason wrote to an associate on 15 Facebook, "It's almost time for us to stop being nice and give some 16 (((people))) a lesson in 'do unto others.'"

17 Exhibit 31: On April 28, 2017, the day after defendant Eason
18 attended another event in Berkeley in order to "deny antifa a face-19 saving victory," but which did not result in violence, defendant 20 Eason wrote to an associate on Facebook, "It's official. Berkeley 21 belongs to the alt right and is a lawful colony of Kekistan.<sup>3</sup> . . .

23 <sup>1</sup> The term "lol" means "laugh out loud," and indicated defendant
24 Eason's associate's view that defendant Eason was being sarcastic when he expressed his expectation of having "well reasoned debates" with antifa activists.

25 <sup>2</sup> "SOO" refers to "Soldiers of Odin," which, as addressed at 26 page 25 of the government's opposition brief, has been identified as a "hate group" by the Anti-Defamation League.

27 <sup>3</sup> "Kekistan" is a fictional country invented by users of 28 internet message boards and generally associated with the alt-right movement.

1 Some Kekistanis were handing out Pepsis yesterday, definitely for the 2 [laughs]. Sadly there were no opportunities to use them as 3 ammunition since all of our protestors were peaceful normie cucks<sup>4</sup>. .
4 . . 16 hours behind the wheel and a pair of fists that went 5 tragically unused."

6 Exhibit 32: On October 10, 2018, defendant Eason wrote to an 7 associate on Facebook, "I wanna join atomwaffen. Im t[i]red [o]f 8 limp dicked faggots."<sup>5</sup> Defendant Eason then wrote to two other 9 associates proposing they "go to the spot Where that nig killed the 10 70 [year old] deputy" and "put up flyers warning people that its an 11 active area for niger murder." Defendant Eason suggested they create 12 a symbol of a "black figure with a weapon standing over a dying

22 <sup>4</sup> The term "normie" is a slang pejorative label for an 23 individual who is deemed to be boringly conventional or mainstream, 24 and "cuck" is an insult used by members of the alt-right to describe a "cuckservative" (a combination of the words "cuckold" and "conservative"), i.e., someone whose views are deemed insufficiently conservative.

25 <sup>5</sup> According to the Anti-Defamation League, the Atomwaffen
26 Division is a violent neo-Nazi group that conducts combat and arms 27 training for members and is known for posting recruitment posters on college campuses stating "Join Your Local Nazis!" Members of the 28 Atomwaffen Division have been charged and convicted of numerous crimes including murder and possession of illegal explosives. See
